We periodically update all documents, data or information of all clients and beneficial owners collected under the CDD process.

b. While carrying out transactions for the client

- RMS department should monitor the trading activity of the client and exercise due diligence to ensure that the trading activity of the client is not disproportionate to the financial status and the track record of the client.
- Payments department should ensure that payment received from the client is being received in time and through the bank account the details of which are given by the client in KYC form and the payment through cash / bearer demand drafts should not be entertained.

B. Policy for acceptance of clients:

The following safeguards are to be followed while accepting the clients:

No account is opened in a fictitious / benami name or on an anonymous basis. To ensure this we must insist the client to fill up all the necessary details in the KYC form in our presence and obtain all the necessary documentary evidence in support of the information filled in KYC. We must verify all the documents submitted in support of information filled in the KYC form with the originals and in-person verification should be done by our own staff. Moreover new client should either be introduced by an existing customer or by the senior official of the company. In case we have any doubt that in-complete / fictitious information is submitted by the client, we must ask for such additional information so as to satisfy ourselves about the genuineness of the client and the information of the client before accepting his registration. We have maintained a updated list of individuals / entities which are subject to various sanctions / measures pursuant to United Nations Security Council Resolutions (UNSCR), available from the URL <http://www.un.org/sc/committees/1267/consolist.shtml> which are subject to various sanction measures such as freezing of assets/accounts, denial of financial services etc and verify the names of customers in such list of individuals and entities subject to various sanction measures of UN Security council Committee, other publicly available information and complying with Government order UAPA. Company shall continuously scan all existing accounts to ensure that no account is held by or linked to any of the entities or individuals included in the list. Full details of accounts bearing resemblance with any of the individuals/entities in the list shall immediately be intimated to SEBI and FIU-IND.

We must ensure that an account is not opened where the intermediary is unable to apply appropriate CDD measures/ KYC policies. This shall apply in cases where it is not possible to ascertain the identity of the client, or the information provided to the intermediary is suspected to be non - genuine, or there is perceived non - co-operation of the client in providing full and complete information. The market intermediary shall not continue to do business with such a person and file a suspicious activity report. It shall also evaluate whether there is suspicious trading in determining whether to freeze or close the account. The market intermediary shall be cautious to ensure that it does not return securities of money that may be from suspicious trades.

We must undertake client due diligence ("CDD") measures to an extent that is sensitive to the risk of ML and TF depending on the type of client, business relationship or transaction. We must have a system a place for identifying, monitoring and reporting suspected ML or TF transactions to the law enforcement authorities; and develop staff members' awareness and vigilance to guard against ML and TF

Documentation requirements and other information to be collected in respect of different classes of clients depending on the perceived risk and having regard to the requirements of Rule 9 of the PML Rules, Directives and Circulars issued by SEBI from time to time.

- a. Risk perception of the client is defined having regard to:
 1. Client's location (registered office address, correspondence addresses and other addresses if applicable); if client location is out of India and in any of high risk jurisdiction as defined by FATF – High risk
 - (i) Face to face clients- Low risk
 - (ii) Clients introduced by existing face to face client-Low risk
 - (iii) Direct clients-Medium Risk
 - (iv) Clients introduced by existing other client- Medium Risk
 - (v) CSC clients: High Risk
 2. Nature of business activity, trading turnover etc., and
 3. Manner of making payment for transaction undertaking.

Type of transactions

Transactions inconsistent with client apparent financial standing- High risk

The parameter of clients into low, medium and high risk should be classified.

Clients of special category (as given above) are classified as higher risk and higher degree of due diligence and regular update of KYC profile should be performed.

Acceptance of clients through Risk – Based Approach

Our AML policy has adopted RISK based approach as per guidance and FATF Recommendations. Master Circular categorizes clients of high risk countries, including countries where existence and effectiveness of money laundering controls is suspect or which do not or insufficiently apply FATF. These measures may include a further enhanced scrutiny of transactions, enhanced relevant reporting mechanisms or systematic reporting of financial transactions, and applying enhanced due diligence while expanding business relationships with the identified country or persons in that country etc.

The clients may be higher or lower risk category depending on circumstances such as the customer's background, type of business relationship or transaction etc. We should apply each of the clients due diligence measures on a risk sensitive basis. Based on the client categorisation, we should adopt an enhanced customer due diligence process for higher risk categories of customers. Conversely, a simplified customer due diligence process may be adopted for lower risk categories of customer. In line with the risk based approach, we should obtain type and amount of identification information and additional documents necessarily depend on the risk category of a particular customer. Further low risk provision should not apply when there are suspicious of Money laundering / financing of terrorism or when other factors give rise to a belief that the customer does not in fact pose a low risk. Due diligence measures shall be on risk sensitive basis.

II. Ensure that no account is opened where we unable to apply appropriate clients due diligence measures KYC policies. This shall be applicable in cases where it is not possible to ascertain the identity of the client or information provided by the client is suspected to be non genuine or perceived non co-operation of the client in providing full and complete information. We should not continue to do business with such a person and file a suspicious activity report. We should also evaluate whether there is suspicious trading in the account and whether there is a need to freeze or close the account.

III. The client account should be scrutinized regularly for determining nature of transaction taken place. In case of any suspicious transaction arisen, the account should be freezed or money should not be delivered to client. The suspicious transaction shall be reported to the FIU as well as respective exchanges or depository where transactions have taken place.

IV. We have also evaluate whether there is suspicious trading in determining whether to freeze or close the account. Should be cautious to ensure that is does not return money that may be from suspicious trades. However we can consult the relevant authorities in determining what action it should take when it suspect suspicious trading.

V. Verify identity while carrying out:

- Any international money transfer operation

Risk Assessment

Company carry out risk assessment to identify, assess and take effective measures to mitigate money laundering and terrorist financing risk with respect to clients, countries or geographical areas, nature and volume of transactions, payment methods used by clients, etc.

The risk assessment take into account any country specific information that is circulated by the Government of India and SEBI from time to time, as well as, the updated list of individuals and entities who are subjected to sanction measures as required under the various United Nations' Security Council Resolutions (These can be accessed at http://www.un.org/sc/committees/1267/aq_sanctions_list.shtml and <http://www.un.org/sc/committees/1988/list.shtml>).

The risk assessment carried out shall consider all the relevant risk factors before determining the level of overall risk and the appropriate level and type of mitigation to be applied. The assessment shall be documented, updated regularly and made available to competent authorities and self regulating bodies, as and when required

Identifying & reporting Suspicious Transactions:

Regular monitoring of transactions is vital for ensuring effectiveness of the AML procedures. Every member of the company shall have an understanding of the normal activity of the client so that it can identify deviations in transactions / activities.

The compliance cell of the intermediary shall randomly examine a selection of transactions undertaken by clients to comment on their nature i.e. whether they are in the nature of suspicious transactions or no.

Every member of the company should ensure Suspicious transactions shall also be regularly reported to the compliance cell or to the principal officer and if it is in suspicious nature it should be notified and reported to the FIU by the principal officer.

D. Information and Retention of records

Company are required to maintain and preserve the following information in respect of transactions referred to in Rule 3 of PML Rules:

- a) the nature of the transactions;
- b) the amount of the transaction and the currency in which it is denominated;
- c) the date on which the transaction was conducted; and
- d) the parties to the transaction.

Company shall maintain such records as are sufficient to permit reconstruction of individual transactions (including the amounts and types of currencies involved, if any) so as to provide, if necessary, evidence for prosecution of criminal behaviour. Shall there be any suspected drug related or other laundered money or terrorist property, the competent investigating authorities would need to trace through the audit trail for reconstructing a financial profile of the suspect account.

To enable this reconstruction, Company shall retain the following information for the accounts of their clients in order to maintain a satisfactory audit trail:

- (a) The beneficial owner of the account;
- (b) The volume of the funds flowing through the account; and
- (c) For selected transactions:
 - the origin of the funds;
 - the form in which the funds were offered or withdrawn, e.g. cheques, demand drafts etc.
 - the identity of the person undertaking the transaction;
 - the destination of the funds;
 - the form of instruction and authority.

Company shall ensure that all client and transaction records and information are available on a timely basis to the competent investigating authorities. Where required by the investigating authority, they shall retain certain records, e.g. client identification, account files, and business correspondence, for periods which may exceed those required under the SEBI Act, Rules and Regulations framed there-under PMLA, other relevant legislations, Rules and Regulations or Exchange bye-laws or circulars.

Company shall take appropriate steps to evolve an internal mechanism for proper maintenance and preservation of such records and information in a manner that allows easy and quick retrieval of data as and when requested by the competent authorities. Further, the records mentioned in Rule 3 of PML Rules have to be maintained and preserved for a period of five years from the date of transactions between the client and intermediary.

Company will maintain and preserve the Records evidencing the identity of its clients and beneficial owners as well as account files and business correspondence for a period of five years after the business relationship between a client and intermediary has ended or the account has been closed, whichever is later."

Company shall maintain and preserve the record of documents evidencing the identity of its clients and beneficial owners (e.g., copies or records of official identification documents like passports, identity cards, driving licenses or similar documents) as well as account files and business correspondence for a period of five years after the business relationship between a client and intermediary has ended or the account has been closed, whichever is later."

Company will maintain and preserve the record of information related to transactions, whether Attempted or executed, which are reported to the Director, FIU-IND, as required under Rules 7 & 8 of the PML Rules, for a period of five years from the date of the transaction between the client and the intermediary

All necessary records on transactions, both domestic and international, shall be maintained at least for the minimum period prescribed under the relevant Act and Rules (PMLA and rules framed thereunder as well SEBI Act) and other legislations, Regulations or exchange bye-laws or circulars.

In situations where the records relate to on-going investigations or transactions which have been the subject of a suspicious transaction reporting, it shall be retained until it is confirmed that the case has been closed.

In order to raise the compliance level and mitigate the risk, company follows the ongoing due diligence by updating the financial documents and statements on yearly basis.

Procedure for freezing of funds, financial assets or economic resources or related services

As a registered intermediary, we ensure to comply with the procedure for freezing of funds, financial assets or economic resources or related services and ensure effective and expeditious implementation of the said order.

E. Employees' Training

Company adopted an ongoing employee training program so that the members of the staff are adequately trained in AML and CFT procedures. Training requirements have specific focuses for frontline staff, back office staff, compliance staff, risk management staff and staff dealing with new customers. It is crucial that all those concerned fully understand the rationale behind these guidelines, obligations and requirements, implement them consistently and are sensitive to the risks of their systems being misused by unscrupulous elements. The training occurs on quarterly basis. We also encourage our employees to regularly attend seminars, visit website for regular updates.

F. Investors Education

Implementation of AML/CFT measures requires back office and trading staff to demand certain information from investors which may be of personal nature or which have hitherto never been called for. Such information can include documents evidencing source of funds/income tax returns/bank records etc. This can sometimes lead to raising of questions by the customer with regard to the motive and purpose of collecting such information. There is, therefore, a need for the back office and trading staff to sensitize their customers about these requirements as the ones emanating from AML and CFT framework. The back office and trading staff should prepare specific literature/ pamphlets etc. so as to educate the customer of the objectives of the AML/CFT programme.

G. Reporting to FIU-India

As per our observations if any transaction of suspicious nature is identified it must be brought to the notice of the Principal Officer who will submit Suspicious Transaction Reporting (STR) to the FIU if required at following address

Director,
Financial Intelligence Unit-India,
6th Floor, Hotel Samrat,
Chanakyapuri,
New Delhi- 110021
Website: <http://fiuindia.gov.in>

We have carefully gone through all the reporting requirements and formats given on the website of Financial Intelligence Unit – India and ensure furnishing of information within the due dates prescribed Financial Intelligence Unit – India.

We do not put any restrictions on operations in the accounts where an STR has been made. Our directors, officers and employees (permanent and temporary) are prohibited from disclosing (“tipping off”) the fact that a STR or related information is being reported or provided to the FIU-IND. This prohibition on tipping off extends not only to the filing of the STR and/or related information but even before, during and after the submission of an STR. Thus, it is ensured that there is no tipping off to the client at any level.
